

Metal and Religion Music Video Discussion Questions

- How does the music video explore the intersection of heavy metal music and religion? What symbolism, imagery, or lyrical content in the video highlights this connection?
- How does the video challenge both conventional religious norms and expectations within the culture of heavy metal?
- How does the video contribute to a broader conversation about religious diversity and the evolution of metal music in a global context?